

Visions International visions made real

Meet the Visionary

Personal and Business Coach • Language and Intercultural Coach and Trainer • Certified TESOL | TEFL | TESL Teacher Trainer • Certified Japanese Speaker

Bernell King Ingram is a professional coach, corporate trainer, language and intercultural coach, author, speaker, teacher and owner of Visions International, LLC, a professional coaching, consulting and training company. Visions International equips global executives, entrepreneurs, professionals, non-profit organizations, educators and students to relate and communicate cross-culturally, live contentedly and work successfully with other cultures.

Bernell has lead Visions International to be a leader in language and intercultural coaching. The Visions International T.E.A.M. maintains 100% overall client satisfaction, 98% of our students complete their language program, 98% pass official language testing (TOEIC, TOEFL, EIKEN), 5-star English Immersion Program for youth, managers and executives, 5-star satisfaction of Business, Executive, Intercultural Coaching and Training, 4.9 stars for our language coaches, 4.9 stars for our Executive Staff.

Bernell has made noteworthy contributions to the work of small business and community development by partnering with and volunteering for economic development organizations to start and development microfinance and business coaching programs. Bernell has coached and trained over 1406 business owners in starting and growing businesses and creating jobs. Visions International has directly assisted over 75 businesses in securing over $1 million in financing. Partnerships with economic developers have provided entrepreneurs access to over $1.4 million in new financing opportunities in South Carolina.

Bernell's love for languages and cultures has led her to Mexico, Canada and as far as Japan on a study abroad and as a professional scholar with Rotary International.

Bernell holds the esteemed award as one of Clemson University's Young Alumni of Merit for her exceptional achievement and significant contribution to her profession, community, and to the university. She was recognized by Clemson World Magazine as a Clemson Women Firsts when she became the first Clemson student to graduate with a Language and International Trade Degree with a concentration in Japanese. This recognition also led to Bernell being honored as an Upstate, South Carolina Black History Maker by radio station 107.3 WJMZ. Bernell has been featured in Business Black Box, GSA Business, The Greenville News and CHIC Magazine. Bernell is a Greenville Chamber of Commerce Minority Business of the Year Finalist, YWCA Woman of Achievement, Riley Institute Diversity Fellow, and a Greenville Magazine's Best & Brightest 35 and Under. Clemson University Women's Leadership presented Bernell the "Gone the Distance" Award for fostering leadership in her daily life and helping others step out as leaders.

Bernell is also a graduate of Coach U, Inc., a world renowned coach training institute, and pursuing professional coach certification with the International Coach Federation (ICF).

Bernell has served in ministerial leadership for over sixteen years. Bernell has traversed and transcended denominational and cultural lines and barriers to equip church leaders, members and Christian business owners in living their vision in life, ministry and business.

Bernell is a native of Greenville, South Carolina, USA.

Visions International | 3519 Pelham Road Suite 204 | Greenville, SC 29615 USA
1.864.558.0598 Office | 1.888.710.4950 Toll Free Phone and Fax
info@visionsmadereal.com | visionsmadereal.com